Sådan anvender du registeret

Registeret består af efternavne og initialer på mere end 5.000 kvinder, der er nævnt som mødre til børn, hvor der var en faderskabssag mod en eller flere tyske soldater.

Man kan således til en vis grad tjekke, om en kvinde er nævnt i registeret, og skulle den person, man er interesseret i, matche en person på listen, kan man henvende sig til Danskernes Historie Online med følgende oplysninger:

- a) Fulde navn og fødselsdato på kvinden
- b) Hvornår den pågældende kvinde er død
- c) Dato for barnets fødsel
- d) Sagsnummeret, der findes i sidste kolonne

Danskernes Historie Online vil så kunne sende yderligere oplysninger om sagen incl. det fulde navn på den tyske soldat.

Henvendelse: bibliotek@slaegt.dk.

Kilde

Kilde til oplysningerne er Justitsministeriets indsamling og behandling af disse faderskabssager. Sagerne fremgår af journalens gruppe 161 for Justitsministeriets 1. kontor fra 1942-1945 (men dækkende faderskabssager fra besættelsens start til 1946).

Den nævnte journal findes hos Rigsarkivet København og kan bestilles til læsesal, lige som en underliggende sag også kan bestilles til læsesalen.

Sagsnummeret i sidste kolonne matcher sagsnummeret i Justitsministeriets protokol, og året er angivet ved et bogstav. R = 1942, S = 1943, T = 1944 og U = 1945.

Ved bestilling i Daisy af selve sagen anføres følgende:

Arkivserie: Journalsager

Arkivskaber: Justitsministeriet, 1. Ekspeditionskontor

Baggrund

I følge historieforskningen er der blandt børn født i Danmark under eller lige efter den tyske besættelse registreret mere end 5.000 personer, som har fået udlagt en tysk biologisk far. Deres faderskabssager, som behandledes i perioden 1940 – 1951, er alle registreret i Justitsministeriet, og dokumenterne befinder sig som nævnt i Rigsarkivet.

En del tilfælde, hvor faderen var tysk, blev enten mangelfuldt registreret eller registreret med en dansk fader. Foreningen af Krigsbørn vurderer, at det samlede antal tyskerbørn (også kaldet krigsbørn) her i landet, som har en tysk far og en dansk mor, er mellem 10 og 12 tusinde.

Det skal dog også bemærkes, at der i mange familier gik rygter om, at faderen til et barn skulle være en tysk soldat, uden at det nødvendigvis var mere end et rygte.

Hele spørgsmålet om tyske fædre har været meget tabuiseret, lige fra besættelsen og frem til i dag. Det var ingen krigsforbrydelse at have en tysk far, men på grund af stemningen i krigsårene og derefter blev mødrene chikaneret. Det har ramt de børn, der er vokset op i en mærkelig atmosfære af ikke at kunne få klarhed over deres herkomst.

Man kan gennem Arkivalieronline læse de anførte forældre i kirkebogen for et barns fødsel. I nogle tilfælde vil det være oplyst, at faren var en tysk soldat og evt. navnet på denne. I mange tilfælde er den tyske soldat dog ikke nævnt i kirkebogen, selv om der findes en faderskabssag.
