PREFACE

This book may be seen as a result of my wish to share, with those interested, a knowledge of the origins and extent of the family.

Through the study of archives, primarily in "Landsarkivet for Fyn", an adequate picture of the eldest generations has been pieced together. Personal contacts and coincidence then made it possible to compile an almost complete list of descendants from master shoemaker Johan Peter Brodersen.

Many family members have been very helpful; to name but a few, they include Asta and Knud Brodersen, Odense, and Mrs. Dillard (Harriet) Beeson, Kansas City. I am also indebted to Poul Brodersen, Tølløse, who was especially helpful in supplementing my information on the eldest generations.

The material concerning these first generations may be verified in the archives. I believe that still more information may be found, and to facilitate the work of my successor, I am conveying all my documentation to "Landsarkivet for Fyn", where those interested will be able to use it.

Odense, August, 1988.

Steen Rasmussen.

The system in this book is as follows:

The number in the left margin points backwards in the family; the following letter indicates the descendant's place among his/her sisters and brothers.

The number at the right margin indicates the table number, under which the descendant may be found after having made a family.

Capital letter in front of a name denotes adoptive or step-child.

Notes

1. generation (p. 9):

According to the burial register for "Kirchengemeinde St. Johannes", Claus B. was buried November 2. In "Stadtarchiv Flensburg" a note was found in the "Ratsprotokoll", dated October 14, 1727, showing that Claus B. and other shoemakers in town had undertaken to produce 1.054 pairs of shoes for the royal lifeguards; to date, no further information has been found. Text:

"Ao. 1727.

den 14. Octobr: Erschienen Hinrich ...
Peter Hansen, Nicolai Jacobsen, Jess ...
sen und Claus Brodersen, Bürger und
Amt-Schuster allhin und haben eydlich ausgesaget und bezeuget, dass die
1054 paar neue Mondier-Schuhe, welche
der Hr. Oberster Waltor zu der Königl.
Leib-Garde auf Ostern 1727 bei Ihnen
bestellet und verfertiget accordiert
habe, Sie auch davon Bereits einige hunderte nach Copenhagen gesand und den Rest dieses Jahrs noch übersenden gedenken, allhier in der Stadt
Ihnen und Ihren geholfen verfertiget
So wahren."

2. generation (p. 10):

Nicolai B. became a master shoemaker May 30, 1760.

The family lived in Vindegade.

Hans Chr. Johansen: "Næring og bystyre. Odense 1700-1789" (Odense bys historie, vol. 5), Odense 1983, pp. 78 (in a chapter dealing with trade) has the following passage (transl.):

"Part of the finished footwear was sold in Odense, but the local shoemakers sought a greater market for their goods. In 1778 Odense authorities issued 164 passes to local shoemakers, in order that they may offer their goods in other towns, and several shoemakers spent part of the year visiting market places. As an example, master shoemaker Nicolai Brodersen in 1778 was issued the following passes:

- | | | |
|-----------------|---------------|-------------------------------------------------|
| 1. March 19 | to Skælskør | with 40 pairs of boots and
70 pairs of shoes |
| 2. June 27 | to Kalundborg | with 40 pairs of boots and
30 pairs of shoes |
| 3. July 25 | to Slagelse | with 34 pairs of boots and
50 pairs of shoes |
| 4. August 20 | to Skælskør | with 36 pairs of boots and
30 pairs of shoes |
| 5. September 19 | to Egeskov | with 36 pairs of boots and
10 pairs of shoes |
| 6. October 3 | to Korsør | with 40 pairs of boots |
| 7. October 21 | to Køge | with 50 pairs of boots |
| 8. November 9 | to Ringsted | with 80 pairs of boots |

We do not know if Brodersen sold all his goods at each market, but Odense shoemakers' external sales this particular year may easily have been several thousand pairs of shoes and boots, and it is probably a sign of their competitiveness that not one single non-local shoemaker showed up at the four fair days in Odense this year."

3. generation (p. 11):

Peder B. became a master shoemaker July 31, 1799.
The family lived in Vindegade.

4. generation (Table 1):

Johan Peter B. became a master shoemaker April 24, 1841.
The family lived in Vindegade.

5. generation (Table 2):

Marie Sophie Frederikke B. was in the service of a farmer Borchsenius in Fraugde from November 1, 1862 to May 1, 1863. She then worked until May 1, 1864 on Vejrupgård, the manor of Marslev.
From May 1, 1864 to May 1, 1869, she served on Vejstrupgård, which is the manor of Vejstrup. Here she met Lars Hansen, who was the gardener of the manor and had been so, probably since 1859. Lars H. was a dragoon of the 6th Regiment from January 1853 until October 1856; he next worked on Marienlund near Odense, presumably as a gardener.

The day after they were married in Vejstrup, they left for Odense and stayed there until May 11, when they travelled to Copenhagen. They left there May 15, on board the "Ocean Queen", bound for New York.

5. generation (Table 3):

Mads P. served in the 5th Battalion from August 1865. From October 1882 he was a shooting instructor in the 16th Battalion.

5. generation (Table 4):

Frederik Carl Christian B. had his glaziers in Kongensgade; his son August Frederik Bernhard B. later took over the business.

5. generation (Table 5):

Hansine Caroline Augusta B. emigrated May 1869 together with her sister. She worked as a governess in Chicago, Illinois, prior to her marriage to Louis Henry Love, whom she had met on the boat coming over from Denmark.

5. generation (Table 8):

Thora Elvine Camilla B.s husband Lars Peder Carlsen was a carpenter, but from July 1878 served in the Medical Corps. He is author of the book "Lad os afskaffe krig" (i.e., "On the abolition of war"), Odense 1917, and as such probably one of the very first people in Scandinavia to deal, at length, with the subject of The League of Nations, or United Nations.
